Notes for Babb:

There isn't direct evidence of a major epidemic specifically in Berkhamsted, Hertfordshire during 1638-1639, but England as a whole was experiencing periodic outbreaks of plague during this time. London saw mild plague spikes in 1638 and 1639, though they were less severe than later outbreaks in the 1640s. This is possibly the reason for the death of this child.
